

CHANGE YOUR FOCUS

"This ONE THING I do:" Philippians 3:13

You must maintain proper and steadfast focus to become and have any long-term success.

Focus is the ability to see and perceive mentally with inner-driven intent visually. Focus is a powerful key that will create your prosperity and bring you to becoming

Focus partly has to deal with the ability to maintain an aim to move towards your purpose and not be distracted by prevailing issues or immobilized by pain.

You must change your focus to become.

Your focus is your perception

Your perception is the sum total of how you think and what you feel

What you focus on continually becomes your obsession, and your obsession inevitably becomes your possession

When one does not see well, he is said not to have correct focus. Only by correction can we begin to see more clearly, and make our obsession our possession. In like manner, there usually is a diagnosis and remedy aid in your sight.

Failure is never futile, but it is a factor for finality if we fail to focus.

Maintaining focus is the key to becoming, especially amid pain, anguish, or delay; it is essential to keep this most encouraging thought in your heart and mind;

We can help visit us at Imerge.org